Mitch began his career as a newspaper reporter before shifting his focus to national business journalism. Twice named one of the nation's Top 10 Business Journalists, he writes DC Velocity's award-winning monthly Outbound column. Passionate about music but with absolutely zero musical aptitude, Mitch says that if stranded on a desert island, he would pass the time listening to his "Island 5" of Frank Zappa, The Beatles, Joe Jackson, Roger Waters, and Jason Isbell.

David Maloney, Editorial Director, would be happier sailing his boat on Lake Erie, but he has a wife, too many cats, pond fish, and turtles to support. So, he does the next best thing he can think of — overseeing all print and electronic content created for Supply Chain Quarterly. Before entering the wonderful world of supply chain reporting, Dave was a journalist and television producer/director in Pittsburgh. He continues to use those skills in creating electronic content for the SCQ audience, including videos and webcasts. In his spare time (which admittedly is not a lot), he enjoys travel and golf, and is a long-suffering Pirates baseball fan. Dave lists C.S. Lewis as his favorite writer.

Susan Lacefield, Executive Editor, was one of the founding members of CSCMP's Supply Chain Quarterly. While that may make her sound old and creaky, there's no denying this: She has heard more than her share of supply chain stories and article pitches over the years. As a result, she knows the difference between a truly new and fresh idea and the same old story wrapped up in the latest buzzwords. As the primary curator of The Quarterly's content, Lacefield seeks out subject matter experts and article topics that can walk the middle path—somewhere between the heavy prose that you find in academic journals and the superficial coverage of supply chain topics that you get in the general press.

Supply Chain Quarterly is the work of a team of award-winning journalists with decades of experience reporting and writing on supply chain topics.

Diane Rand, Managing Editor, has been working with Supply Chain Quarterly since December 2015. Attention to details and a love of organization made her a natural fit to handle the production of a magazine. When she's not bothering her coworkers about staying on deadlines, Diane is responsible for several production assignments and lends a hand when needed for digital and editorial content. Outside of work, she spends time with her husband and three children, tries to find time to train for half marathons, and reads as much as possible.

Karen Bachrach, Consulting Editor, serves in an editing and advisory capacity at Supply Chain Quarterly. When not at work, she enjoys cycling, hiking, running (maybe "enjoy" is too strong a word here), general gym rattery, and spending time with her family.

Nichole Mumford, CSCMP Liaison, is the director of marketing and professional development for the Council of Supply Chain Management Professionals (CSCMP). With a background in business administration, she has earned professional certifications in marketing, social media, and audience engagement and has a graduate degree in integrated marketing communications at Northwestern University. She lives in Chicago with her husband and two sons, and they love nothing more than a summer day at the baseball fields.

Victoria Kickham, Editor-At-Large, started her career as a newspaper reporter in the Boston area before moving into B2B journalism. She has covered manufacturing, distribution, and supply chain issues for a variety of publications in the industrial and electronics sectors, and now writes about everything from logistics to transportation to technology as a member of the Supply Chain Quarterly staff.

Ben Ames, Editor-at-Large, thinks the best thing about covering supply chain tech is traveling to cool places, meeting new folks in logistics, and learning how their robots and startups are about to change the world. Find him typing tweets and news stories on his laptop in airports, hotels, and warehouses. Or catch him after work paddling kayaks, hiking trails, or losing to his kids at tennis.

Steve Geary, Editor at Large, has more than 25 years of experience in global supply chains as an industry executive, consultant, researcher, teacher, and author. He is the president of Supply Chain Visions Inc., a thought leader in supply chain management and performance measurement, and works extensively with the U.S. Department of Defense. He is also a faculty member and research associate at the University of Tennessee's College of Business Administration and the Gordon Institute at Tufts University.

Martha Spizziri, Managing Editor-Digital, has been a writer and editor for longer than she cares to remember. Suffice it to say that her work in the supply chain field includes 11 years at Logistics Management and five years as web editor at Modern Materials Handling magazine, starting with the website's launch in 1996. She has long experience in developing and managing Web-based products. In her off hours, she can be found reading either a classic work of literature or something really trashy. She also enjoys watching both classic and cheesy old films on TCM.

THE BUSINESS TEAM

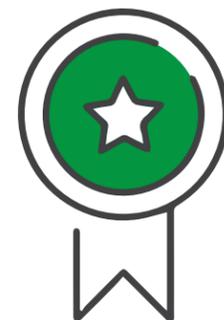

Gary Master, COO, Publisher, is a founding principal of AGiLE Business Media, LLC. Prior to joining AGiLE, he was president of Green Associates, a consulting and marketing services firm. Gary has been a key player in the logistics market for more than 28 years. Don't let his experience level fool you, though; his four teenagers keep him current on all the retail and social media trends hitting the market. Gary believes strongly in servant leadership and strives to be a value-added resource for companies seeking leading-edge insights and marketing strategies. He currently serves on several boards of companies and associations that seek to make the world a better place.

Maria MacDonald, Director of Business Administration, While wearing many hats for AGiLE Business Media, Maria has the pleasure of working closely with both the publisher and the sales team, helping to keep things organized and running smoothly. Maria's attitude is the glass is always half full (preferably with a nice Cabernet). She enjoys laughing, kettle bell workouts, and live music. Although, if by chance, she was stranded on a desert island with say, Mitch, she would definitely find a way to lose the Zappa music and replace it with some Don Henley.

CREATIVE/PRODUCTION

Keisha Capitola, Director of Creative Services/Production Manager, has extensive experience in business publication design. When not conceptualizing another innovative and engaging illustration idea for third-party logistics providers, she can be found homeschooling her teenage daughter, managing her family's stable of 20 American Quarter Horses, and competing at horse shows nationwide. Keisha adores her rambunctious toy poodle, strawberry ice cream, and mixed media collage. Still getting used to Southern living, she refuses to add the word "y'all" to her vernacular, but enjoys sipping sweet tea on the veranda.

Jeff Thacker, Director of eMedia, has built websites and web applications, and managed e-newsletter development for more than a decade. He joined DC Velocity in 2004 after five years as a member of the electronic media and production staff at Supply Chain Management Review and Logistics Management. An avid hockey fan who is still known to lace up his own skates now and again, Jeff can often be heard telling less tech-savvy staff members that "It really is all that complicated."
