PARTNER PROFILES

THE PORT OF LONG BEACH: A Global Leader

The Port of Long Beach is a global leader in operational excellence and top-notch customer service, moving cargo with reliability, speed and efficiency – making it the premier U.S. gateway for trans-Pacific trade.

Located in Southern California and part of the San Pedro Bay port complex, the Port of Long Beach handles trade valued at more than $300 billion annually and supports 2.7 million trade-related jobs across the United States, including 180,000 in the five-county Southern California region, or 1 out of 19 jobs.

Spanning 3,200 acres with 11 miles of waterfront, 10 piers, 73 post-Panamax cranes and some of the deepest berths in the country, the Port's facilities can accommodate the largest shipping vessels in the world.

The Port boasts some of the most modern, well-equipped waterfront facilities in the world, including the world's most technologically advanced container terminal – Long Beach Container Terminal.

In 2024, the Port moved 9.6 million container units – the busiest year in its 114-year history – without disruptions or backlog.

It is one of 18 commercial strategic seaports in the United States with a duty to support force deployment during contingencies and other national defense emergencies.

Over the past two decades, the Port has implemented sustainability initiatives that resulted in a cleaner harbor, industry-leading green building practices and most notably, dramatic air-quality improvements.

And the Port of Long Beach continues to work towards becoming the world's first zero-emissions port.

In the next 10 years, the Port is planning $2.2 billion in modernization projects.

Projects include the $1.8 billion Pier 8 On-Dock Rail Support Facility, which will shift more cargo from trucks to trains, tripling the volume of on-dock rail capacity handled annually. Construction began in 2024 and is expected to be complete in 2032.

To strengthen U.S. energy independence and reliability, we are preparing to develop "Pier Wind," a facility to assemble floating offshore wind turbines, which would be towed to state-of-the-art Central and Northern California. The project would create jobs and help the Port and other jobs meet rising energy demand.

The Port has developed a data solution known as the "Supply Chain Information Highway," which offers the industry a flexible, safe source of data, giving operators the information they need when they need it.

In 2024, industry leaders named Long Beach "The Best West Coast Seaport in North America" for the sixth consecutive year. For more information, visit pelb.com.
